Service postage - Sandur State - expenditure - Allotment - requested.

...

The merged state of Sandur was previous to merger purchasing postage stamps from the post office for daily correspondence. After the state was taken over, I have issued orders for the supply of service postage to the Special Officer and passed a contingent bill for Rs.500/- towards the supply of service postage for urgent use. The total estimated expenditure for the year 1949-50 under service postage and telegraph charges for 1949-50 for the Sandur office is Rs.1500/-. I request that sanction may be accorded for incurring of the above expenditure in respect service postage stamps and my action in having issued stamps worth of Rs.500/- under this head in anticipation of sanction may be ratified.
